

Biography

Althea Sprosta has more than 18 years of public service as an Auditor. She is a Senior Auditor at the U. S. Government Accountability Office (GAO), Financial Management and Assurance (FMA) in Washington D.C. where she works to improve and transform the government's financial management and operations to meet existing and emerging critical accountability challenges and ensure stewardship of financial resources.

Althea joined the Federal Triangle Chapter in 2017. In her Chapter and in the DC Metro Region, she has held the position of Finance Chair, and she currently serves as the Chapter Treasurer. She has served on the 2019 NTP Committee as the Agency Forums Lead and on the 2018- 2020 DC Metro Region RTP Committee as the Finance Chair.

Althea graduated from East Carolina University with an undergraduate degree in Accounting and an MBA. She also graduated with a Masters in Information Technology at Grantham University.